NOTES

25X1

USSR-GUINEA: Two Soviet destroyers, one armed with surface-to-air missiles, and an oiler arrived in Conakry on 24 December. [REDACTED]

25X1

[REDACTED] The Soviet ships have been operating off the coast of West Africa for the past several weeks, but Moscow apparently seized upon the idea of a lengthy port visit as a show of support to Guinean President Sekou Toure who fears another Portuguese-backed attack similar to the one on Conakry last month. The sending of these destroyers to Guinea is yet another example of a greater Soviet tendency to use naval forces to advance foreign policy purposes in distant areas. [REDACTED]
